TREATY WITH CHINA. MEXICAN WOMAN DIES

State Department Is Much Pleased With the Document.

Twenty-Five New Cases Have Developed at Laredo.

PRINCIPAL PORTIONS

NO NEED OF ALARM.

They Are Six in Number, and the Signing of the Instrument, it Is Thought, Will Greatly Benefit Uncle Sam.

Doctors Maintain That This Is the Period of the Fourth Infection and Additional Cases Are to Be Expected.

Washington, Oct. 9.—The American China treaty was signed at Shanghai by Minister Conger, Consul General Goodnow and Mr. Seaman, the three commissioners who negotiated the instrument. An Imperial decree by the Chinese government has made the treaty effective so far as that government is concerned, but it must be ratified by the United States before ratifications can be exchanged and treaty put in operation.

Great satisfaction is expressed at the state department at the outcome as it makes certain that two ports in Manchuria will be opened to the United States, no matter what the outcome as to the negotiations for the evacuation of that territory with Russia may be. Assurance that Russia has previously given, and to which this government would insist upon adherence, is that the treaty arrangements made with China, covering Manchurian ports will be binding upon the Russian government. The principal points of the treaty, briefly are as follows:

- First—Settlement of the long vexed question of internal taxation in China.
- Second—Recognition of American's rights of residence throughout the empire for missionary work.
- Third—Protection of patents, trademarks and copyrights.
- Fourth—Mining rights.
- Fifth—Opening of new localities to international trade in the part of the empire in which the United States has vast commercial interests.
- Sixth—Right to carry on trade, industries and manufactures in all parts of China.

HAVE ADJOURNED.

The delegates and the ladies accompanying them were guests of the entertainment committee Thursday in a visit to a cotton plantation where a genuine, old fashioned barbecue was a feature of the programme.

HOGG AND MILES.

Visited the Country in the Vicinity of Crowley, La.

Crowley, La., Oct. 9.—General Nelson A. Miles, ex-Gov. Hogg and party did not get to the oil fields Wednesday afternoon as was planned. The afternoon and evening following was spent in the city. EACH WINS THREE.

Series of Games Between Pittsburg and Boston Nip and Tuck.

Pittsburg, Oct. 9.—That the enthusiasm in the world's base ball championship series has not abated to any extent was shown when 12,000 persons turned out to witness the third home game, although high winds made it rather uncomfortable for the spectators. Leever and Dineen did the pitching and each allowed ten hits. The batting and base running of Beaumont of Pittsburg and the fielding of Parent of Boston were the features. Score: Boston, 6; Pittsburg, 3.

Seventeen off Sanders.

St. Louis, Oct. 9.—The St. Louis Americans defeated the local Nationals 11 to 3 Thursday. Americans got seventeen hits off Sanders.

MRS. IDA McDONALD,

Supreme Deputy of the Maccabees of the World.

MRS. McDONALD, No. 477 Beaubien Street, Detroit, Mich., is a prominent woman who was greatly benefited by the great woman's medicine, Wine of Cardui. Mrs. McDonald is the supreme deputy of the Maccabees of the World, and one of the most widely known women in the United States. Thousands of women gather to hear her lecture everywhere she goes. The great work she has done for the Maccabees is appreciated by every member of the order. She was so absorbed in her work that she neglected to give her health proper care—failed to take warning that the symptoms of approaching kidney trouble gave her, the hollow complexion and torpid liver. But Wine of Cardui cured her the same as it has cured thousands of others and Mrs. McDonald has written this letter in order that other suffering women may secure from Wine of Cardui the same relief she got from it.

Mrs. Ida McDonald.

that I must do some to regain my health friend advocated your Wine of Cardui treatment so strongly that I decided to try it, although I had little faith in patent medicines. I am now very thankful that I did so, for within ten days blessed relief came to me, and in less than three months I was cured, and have enjoyed fine health ever since. I know there is nothing better for a sick woman who wishes to enjoy perfect health and am very pleased to give my hearty endorsement.

No suffering woman can afford to ignore such a letter as Mrs. McDonald writes. Her plans and advice have proved valuable in building up one of the greatest women's organizations in the United States and she takes time to give advice which she knows will help you. Do not delay in securing this medicine. There is nothing to gain and everything to lose by delay. The choice is before you. Will or will you not secure relief now by taking Wine of Cardui? All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui as well as 25c packages of Theford's Black-Draught.

WINE of CARDUI

A million suffering women have found relief in Wine of Cardui.

SIM MULKEY KILLED AT BEDIAS.

Sim W. Mulkey was killed at Bedias last Saturday afternoon by Gill McCurry, being stabbed
through the heart with a dagger.
McCurry is in jail at Anderson.

Report of particulars at hand go to show that Mulkey and a seven year old son were in his field picking cotton when McCurry came up.
The two men had had some dispute over hogs in a field, and the trouble was at once approached; a quarrel ensued in which, it is stated by the little boy, that Mulkey struck McCurry with his fist.
Thereupon McCurry drew his weapon and stabbed Mulkey.

The wounded man started for his home a short distance away; he proceeded about a hundred yards and called his wife, and then fell to the ground. Mrs. Mulkey reached him quickly, placed a pillow under his head and spoke a few words to the dying man. He told her who it was that stabbed him, and the deed was committed for nothing. A few moments more and his soul was on its way to the eternal home.

The dead man was about 45 years of age, had a wife and four small children. He was accounted one of the most highly esteemed citizens of North Grimes and a substantial and well to do farmer.

After the killing, McCurry went to the town of Bedias, a quarter mile away, and surrendered to Deputy Sheriff J. T. Jones, who was in there. He stated that he wanted to surrender; that he had had trouble with Mulkey, and perhaps had killed him, but hoped he had not done so.

McCurry is a young man some 22 or 23 years of age, single and lived with his parents on Mulkey's place. The family is said to have been in that section a comparatively short time.—Navasota Examiner.

ENORMOUS ARMY

Under the Forepaugh-Sells Brothers
Banner.

Very few persons have a definite idea of the number of people employed by the Forepaugh-Sells Circus, which is easily the largest institution of its kind in the country.
A summary discloses the following interesting figures: The huge tented outfit is moved from town to town on 74 railway cars, all of which are 60 feet in length and require four first class locomotives to haul them.
The cars are owned by the show management and were built especially for them. In addition to the cars used in transporting the show
there are four advertising cars in advance, which are also the property of the circus. The number of employees in various capacities is legion. The list is as follows: 25 agit-80 bill-posters, 125 canvasmen, 125 grooms, 40 property men, 20 wardrobe men, 12 chandelier men, 40
property razorbacks or trainmen, 35 cook-house men, 50 animal atendants, 15 dining-car men, 12
sleeping car porters 300 equestrians acrobats, vaulters, gymnats and other arenic performers. Then there are jockeys and charioteers, and Merrick' Military Band of 40 pieces. The executive staff which accompanies the show is also complete. It includes a manager with eight assistants, a treasurer with four assistants, a boss canvasman with eight assistants, a boss hostler with six assistants, a superintendent of transportation, a superintendent of menagerie and museum and two detectives. The side-show and concert people number 85.
This great army will be here when the Adam Forepaugh and Sells Brothers' Enormous Shows United
appears on Saturday, Oct. 17th.

Forty-fourth district court by Attorney General Bell and Assistant General T. S. Reese against W. M. C.

Doubleday-Barrow Lumber company
office was burglarized and about $90

ing. The safe was uniquely entered;

and made his escape.

Threshed by "One Man and Two Oth-

Guthrie, Okla., Oct. 9.—A. W. Sanders of Oklahoma City, territorial vet-with his position. Recently he says he discovered a case of glanders

among the horses in Kingfisher county, and near the city of the same name, and under orders of the Oklahoma live stock sanitary commission immediately began to root out the evil by killing, according to law, all afflicted animals. One horse owner thrashed him and two others ordered him off their farms.

Lack of "Sidewalks" Cause.

Chickasha, I. T., Oct. 9.—The postoffice department has peremptorily turned down Chickasha's application for free mail-delivery. Lack of sidewalks was the principal reason. The people could have put in make-shift sidewalks, which would have answered the purpose, but they refused to do so and there was only one course left open to the department.

The state university football team plays the Haskell Indians at Dallas Oct. 11, and great interest centers in the game. The Texas team for a trip Nov. 10 and will play in Tarrant, Texas, Louisiana and Mississippi. The university and the A. and M. College will play in San Antonio Oct. 20 and in Austin Nov. 21. In making up the best possible all Southwestern football team for the year 1902, the sports editor of the St. Louis Star puts in two A. and M. first team men and two substitutes. The former being Benjamin A. and M. is classed by the Star as one of the Big Four, comprising Vanderbilt, University of Texas, A. and M. College and University of Texas. The Star says: "The Agricultural and Mechanical college of Texas deserves special mention and earned the claim to being numbered among the Big Four of the southwest by the ardent athletic support given the team. This team has not been as well favored as regards financial support, apparently as some of the leaders of this section. The strong points in this team were its excellent line work and its power to concentrate and execute close plays with great speed."

negie Library Appointments.

The council met last night Mayor Harrison presiding, and all officers present. Routine business was disposed of in the usual manner.

The fiscal agent's report showed balance as follows: Special building fund, $148,275; Water works fund, $38,577; Special street fund, $870,871; Special water fund, $1500; Street appropriation fund, $245,280; Cemetery fund, $118,490; Building and street fund, $673,544; Tax and fine fund, $187,815.

Alderman Boyle for the special committee appointed to determine a plan for replenishing the overdrawn tax and fine fund, reported a recommendation that $137,111 be transferred from the special building fund to the tax and fine fund, the amount being a credit balance left after refunding bonds and not reserved for any purpose, the new bonds being provided for by taxation. On motion the recommendation was adopted.

Attorney Betha submitted the Commercial, telephone ordinance providing for the erection of a line of poles on Main street and supplying phones to business houses for long distance use. Adopted.

Dr. Raynor and Messrs. W. E. Saunders and L. L. McInnis came before the council as a committee from the Carnegie library board and reported the library building ready to be opened and in need of funds to pay current expenses and for furniture and books. A motion prevailed that the board be paid $500 less about $150 already paid, and that they also be allowed $83.33 per month for the remainder of the year from Sept. 1, 1902, said amount being a monthly apportionment of the $1000 per year set aside for the library. Aldermen Howell, Searcy and Stevenson voted for this motion and Aldermen Boyle and Priddy against it.

W. E. Saunders, W. P. Connolly, Mrs. Ed Hall and Mrs. C. A. Adams were elected members of the Carnegie library board.

City Marshal Boyett was authorized to sell four of the city mules and two old wagons, keeping three mules and one wagon. All Polk's services for street cleaning were dispensed with after Oct. 15, and Hubbard Jackson was appointed to clean the streets at a salary of $5 per week, using a wagon and two mules instead of the cart.

The light committee was instructed to see about making a new contract for street lights with a view to reducing expenses. Adjourned.

NEW YORK DRENCHED

Terrific Rainfall There and in Intermediate Vicinity.

CONDUIT IS FLOODED.

Numerous Trolley and Railway Lines Crippled and Cars Delayed, Cellars Filled With Water and Damage Great.

New York, Oct. 9.—After a pouring rain of twenty-four hours New York City and vicinity suffered Friday from severe floods. Six and four-hundredth inches of rain fell up to 9 o'clock in the morning. This is believed to be near the record rainfall. Many trolley lines and railroads were either crippled or delayed, and in New York City a conduit containing seventy telegraph wires was so flooded as to disable all wires. There was a heavy flood in the Bronx, which damaged the packing houses of Schwarzschild & Sulzberger, Swift & Co. and Nelson, Morris & Co., and a portion of the freight yard of the New York Central railway was covered by two feet of water. A watchman who sought refuge on top of a car was rescued. From all parts of the city were received reports of flooded cellars, flooded sewers and impassable gutters. Many cellars along the North river front were flooded, and in some instances there was much loss on goods stored there. West street, in front of the downtown ferries to Jersey City and Hoboken, was flooded and passengers were carried across it in drays and grocery wagons, which were temporarily pressed into service.

Trolley traffic at St. George, Staten Island was completely tied up by the rush of water over the tracks between Stapleton and St. George.

Water was two feet deep in the streets near Fulton ferry. Passengers arriving on ferries waded through water up to their knees until dealers in Fulton market used large boxes to build a bridge across the street.

The bridge was blocked for truck traffic, but a section had to be cleared every few minutes to admit the passage of cars. Nassau street between Wall and Pine streets was closed on account of a washout in the middle of the street. Pedestrians waded through a foot of water. The sidewalk at the corner of the sub-treasury building was undermined.

Part of the dam across Ramapo river, near Compton Lake, N. J., washed out during the heavy rain storm, inundating the valley below. A number of houses were flooded, but there were no fatalities.

The resignation is dated Oct. 7 and directed to the secretary of the treasury, who has indicated his acceptance. The resignation is to take effect when his successor shall have been appointed and qualified. Mr. Castle said he would remain in office until that time. Mr. Castle also said he tendered his resignation last spring, but when the investigation into postoffice affairs was begun Secretary Shaw asked him to remain and he had consented to do so. He added that his reason for resigning was found in the necessity of attending to his private business.

"LITTLE WHITE HOUSE."

Former President Cleveland and Family Again Occupy It.

New York, Oct. 9.—Former President and Mrs. Cleveland have taken a cottage at Lakewood, N. J., where it is expected they will spend much of the winter season. It is for the benefit of Mrs. Cleveland's health that the temporary change has been made. She has not regained her strength since the birth of the baby, Francis Grover, and the family physician decided that a stay among the pines of Lakewood would be beneficial. Mrs. Cleveland has left Princeton with the children, including the baby. The cottage is one they occupied during the winter of 1892-93, prior to the second inauguration, and has been known since as "the Little White House."

New York, Oct. 9.—Grain may be withdrawn soon from the list of articles upon London-Liverpool steamship lines operated from various Atlantic ports to maintain minimum rates. At a meeting of representatives of various lines it has been decided to recommend such withdrawal and the matter now is referred back, so far as the foreign lines are concerned, to owners on the other side who signed the agreement. The International Mercantile Marine company withdrew Antwerp rate last week and is understood to favor withdrawal so far as Liverpool and London are concerned.

New York, Oct. 9.—John W. Goodwin, a well-dressed young man, whose home is said to be in Cincinnati, has been arrested in a Fifth avenue store, where special officers allege that he was trying to make off with several bronze statuettes. TILLMAN'S VERSION.

Gives His Reasons For the Shooting of Editor of the State.

Lexington, S. C., Oct. 9.—James H. Tillman resumed the stand Friday. Argument ensued when questions were asked defendant relative to editorials in the State. Tillman, in line of the ruling of the court, rendered after an hour's argument by counsel, was asked what impressions were made upon him by editorials written by Gonzales. He replied they were intensely bitter. He said he did not make threats in Edgefield or on the train going from Johnston to Columbia, as testified to by witnesses for the state. He also said he had no conversation in a livery stable at Edgefield relative to Gonzales, as had been stated in testimony. He was questioned in reference to the conversation which took place in his room in Hotel Columbia on the night of Aug. 21, when Dr. Adams and Colonel Blease, a witness of Thursday, were present. Tillman said the statements were made by him in reply to remarks as to threats reported to him. He said he had been told in a dozen places in South Carolina he could not go to Columbia and say what he said on the stump and elsewhere about Gonzales. Also he said it was reported to him that the opera house in Columbia, where he was to speak, was to be packed and he was not to be let out alive. He stated, he said, that if that threat was carried out it would be the — tragedy in South Carolina.

Tillman, giving his version of the shooting, said he was walking down from the statehouse after adjournment of the senate Jan. 15 in company with Senator Talbird and Mr. Brown, the former being outside, the latter on the inside. Before reaching the transfer station, he said, he noticed Gonzales down the street looking at him very intently. He said he (defendant) had on an overcoat, buttoned. He said he never took his eyes from Gonzales; that Gonzales did not take his eyes off him. He said Gonzales had on an overcoat, tightly buttoned, his hands in his pockets, with thumbs sticking out. Gonzales cut diagonally across the front of him, he said, and the thumb of his right hand disappeared in his pocket. He said he thought that Gonzales was going to draw a weapon and he fired, first saying: "I got your message." The message, he said, referred to the statements reported him by witnesses Whit and Holsenbach. These statements were to the effect that Gonzales said he made Tillman show the white feather twice before and he would do it again. Defendant said he did not fire the second shot, as Gonzales did not draw a pistol. Tillman concluded his testimony shortly before noon.

They and the Freshmen Had a Furious Contest at Texas University.

Great excitement prevailed at University of Texas on account of a rush made between freshmen and juniors. One hundred freshmen and as many juniors arrayed against each other, and for an hour the contest was furious. This was a test of strength and the juniors won out. Several students were slightly injured.

Found in Back Yard.

Aberdeen, Miss., Oct. 9.—The lifeless body of Dr. W. A. Evans, an aged and highly respected physician of this city, was found in the back yard at the Evans home. The top of the physician's head had been blown away by a charge of small shot from a shot gun, which lay beside the body. The coroner's jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

What Emerson Wanted.

"Those who knew Mr. Emerson best," said Miss Louisa M. Alcott, "were assured that what seemed the decline of his faculties in his latter years was largely but a seeming. It was only words he could not command at will. His very forgetfulness of the names of things would often give occasion for a flash of his quaint, shrewd wit. I remember once he started for his usual walk, when a light shower came up, and he returned for his umbrella.

"He could not remember the word umbrella, and we, who had not noticed the shower, had no clue to what he was searching for. Another walking stick was brought him, another hat, a fresh kerchief, only to be refused with that perplexed shake of the head. 'I want,' said he at last—I want—that thing—that your friends always—borrow—and never—bring back!' Could any one fail to recognize that description?"

Plover's Eggs.

Few people realize that there are other eggs besides those of hens which have enormous commercial value. In England so called "plover's eggs," which are really those of lapwings, are sent to the city markets from the rural districts by hundreds of thousands. They are esteemed a great delicacy and fetch a very high price, the use of them being for that reason confined almost exclusively to the aristocracy and other luxurious persons. Being only about the size of pigeons' eggs, a good many of them are required to make a dish. Men make a business of gathering them from the nests in marshes and wet fields.—London Standard.

Michael Angelo's Attempt at Suicide.

Michael Angelo, after receiving a painful injury to his leg by falling from a scaffold while at work upon "The Last Judgment," became so melancholy that he shut himself in his room, refused to see any one and "resolved to let himself die." Fortunately his intentions were frustrated by the celebrated physician Bacio Rontini, who learned by accident of his condition.

The Latest College Yell.

"Just as Gladys was preparing to sing 'Douglas, Douglas,' into a phonograph for young Rushmore last night a mouse ran across her ankle." "What happened?" "Rushmore swiped the phonograph record, and now his class is said to have the most blood curdling college yell that was ever heard."—Houston Post.
